DECIDING ON CHANGES

Only seniors were allowed to register for the yearbook staff and on registration day 23 had signed up. After the rules and guidelines were addressed on the first day of class, 12 seniors remained. As yearbook staff members, our job was to record the events, actions, and reactions of the year. We have tried to capture the '87-88 school year in a positive and different way. We decided to change the traditional layout of the yearbook and now it will be up to you to decide if our approach was a success.

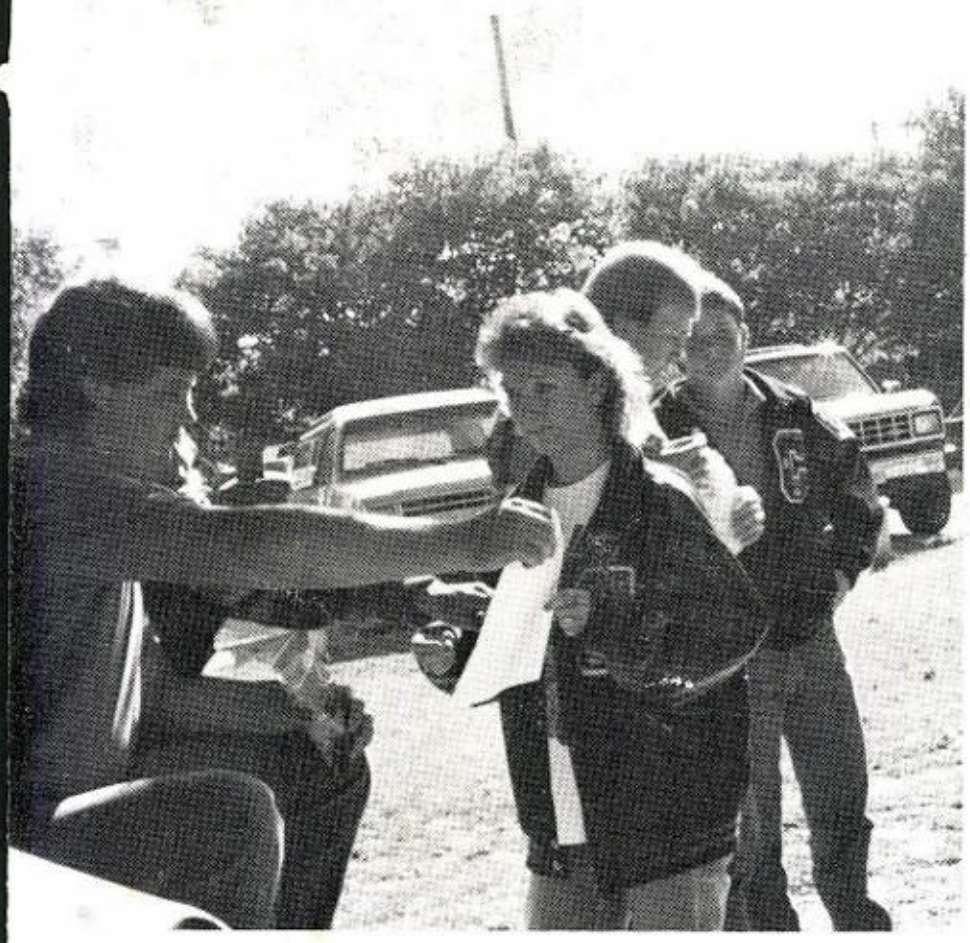
The school year really began for many of the students before registration. It began for the cheerleaders in June when they attended camp, and for the football and volleyball teams when they began pre-season workouts. An organized registration for high school students was initiated by the new high school principal, Mr. Randy Cobb and our new counselor, Mrs. Linda Lynch. Even though there were some changes that had to be made, the '87-88 school year began with ease.

CHEERLEADERS posed with Chico's new Dragon Mascot, Tammy Buckner. Tammy, a senior this year, was chosen by the entire student body to represent Chico as the mascot.

STUDENT BODY seemed very attentive to the activities of this pep rally. Pep schedule was changed to 2:45 this year instead of 2:30.

Although there were many changes, the students still enjoyed talking during break as much as ever.

One highlight of the '87-88 pep rallies was the pie-eating contest the coaches voluntarily entered. Coach Wilson and Coach Langthorn, new to the district, really proved to be big eaters. We had always known Coach Greever and Coach May had big appetites!



Senior, Clay Martin, fulfills upper-classman's duties by proofreading lower-classman's homework.

Juniors

TEAMS

With future graduation on the minds of all juniors, they prepared to take the TEAMS exam. Students in all odd grades must take this assessment instrument. Students at the Exit Level (Grade 11) who fail to demonstrate mastery of mathematics and English language arts, will not be eligible to receive their diplomas upon completion of their senior year. They are given three additional chances to pass if they are unsuccessful the first time.

Knowing this, the juniors marched into the library like soldiers. Each student had their own opinion of this instrument, but only facial expressions and groans were seen and heard. Mrs. Linda Lynch, Chico I.S.D. Counselor, conducted the test and watched as the anxious juniors began this very important task.

In August, 1981, Mrs. Lynch began working at Chico through the auspices of the Education Service Center, Region XI, in Fort Worth. She also worked for the other small schools in Wise County (Alvord, Slidell, Paradise, and Boyd). Gradually, she reduced the number of schools to one.

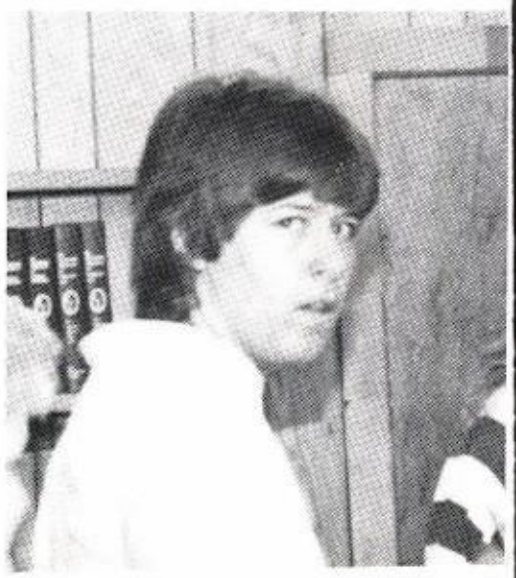
She began working at Chico on a full time basis in August, 1987. Her duties include administrative assistant, counselor, teacher appraiser, curriculum director and accreditation specialist.

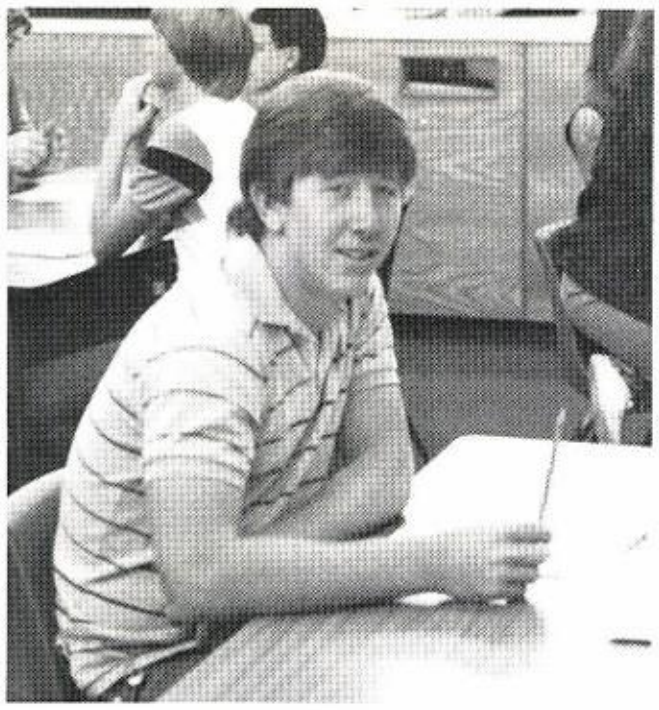
Mrs. Lynch stated her main goal was "to help the juniors and seniors to prepare for graduation, college, and the world of work."

Kathy Redwine didn't seem to be enjoying herself.

Russell Hornsby's face illustrated concern of most juniors.

Casey Hamner looked a bit stunned.





Robby Tate, new to Chico this year, seemed very relaxed before he began his test.

Ricky Connally's feelings about the TEAMS test were quite clear in this photo.

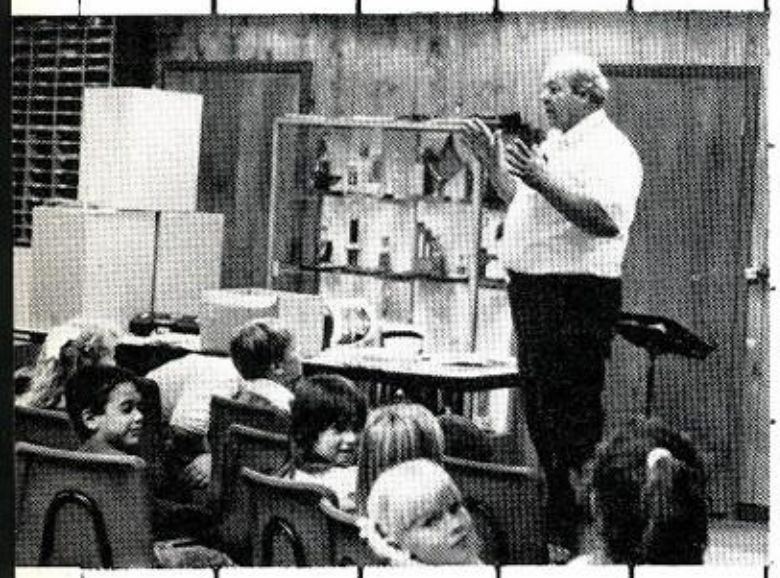
Juniors were given a break between parts of the test. Burette Douglas and Michelle Weger enjoyed that part of the test.

Eric Monett witnessed mass confusion on the part of Tami Clarkson and Kerisia Hilburn before testing resumed.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

Music, pep rallies, float building — almost any activity that interests you is available for students at Chico. Young people today can decide to participate or remain in their own world. Choices are becoming a part of the curriculum and there is usually something for everyone.

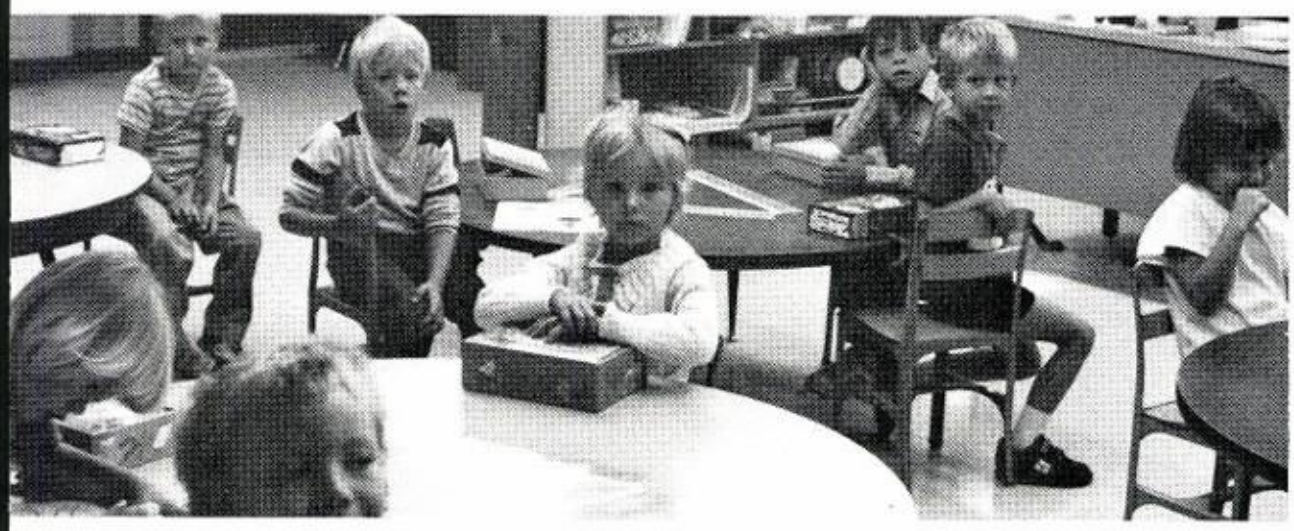
The old saying, "variety is the spice of life" certainly fits the routine today. Not only do students have a wide range of choices, but they have to make the right ones. These decisions start at a very early age!



Mr. McVey is trying very hard to build a strong music program for Chico and the students really enjoy his teaching.

These elementary and junior high students are showing their support at the weekly pep rallies. They are given several opportunities to show their support for the junior high and high school football teams.

The sixth graders are given a choice between art and band. Under the guidance of Mr. Olsen, art students are adding their touches to the homecoming float the class entered this year. By the way, it was a very good float!



Mrs. Cammy Terrell, Kindergarten teacher, helps Crystal Clifton with her alphabet. Crystal seems a little nervous as Mrs. Terrell evaluates her responses.

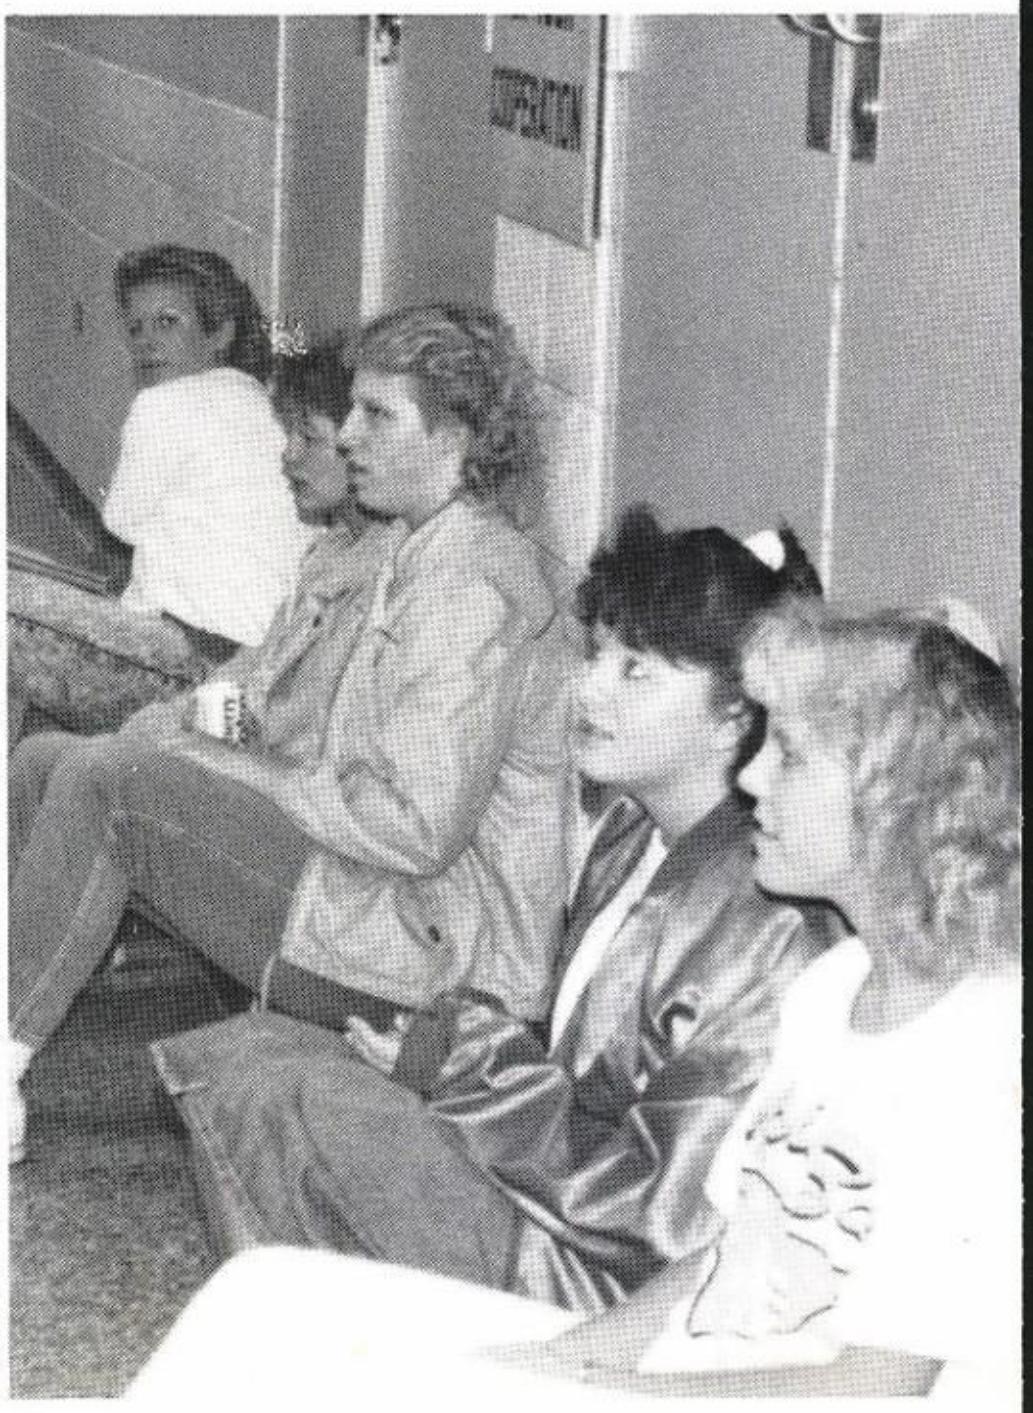
These kindergarten students are waiting for the signal to start coloring. Either that or they don't want anyone to see their crayons!

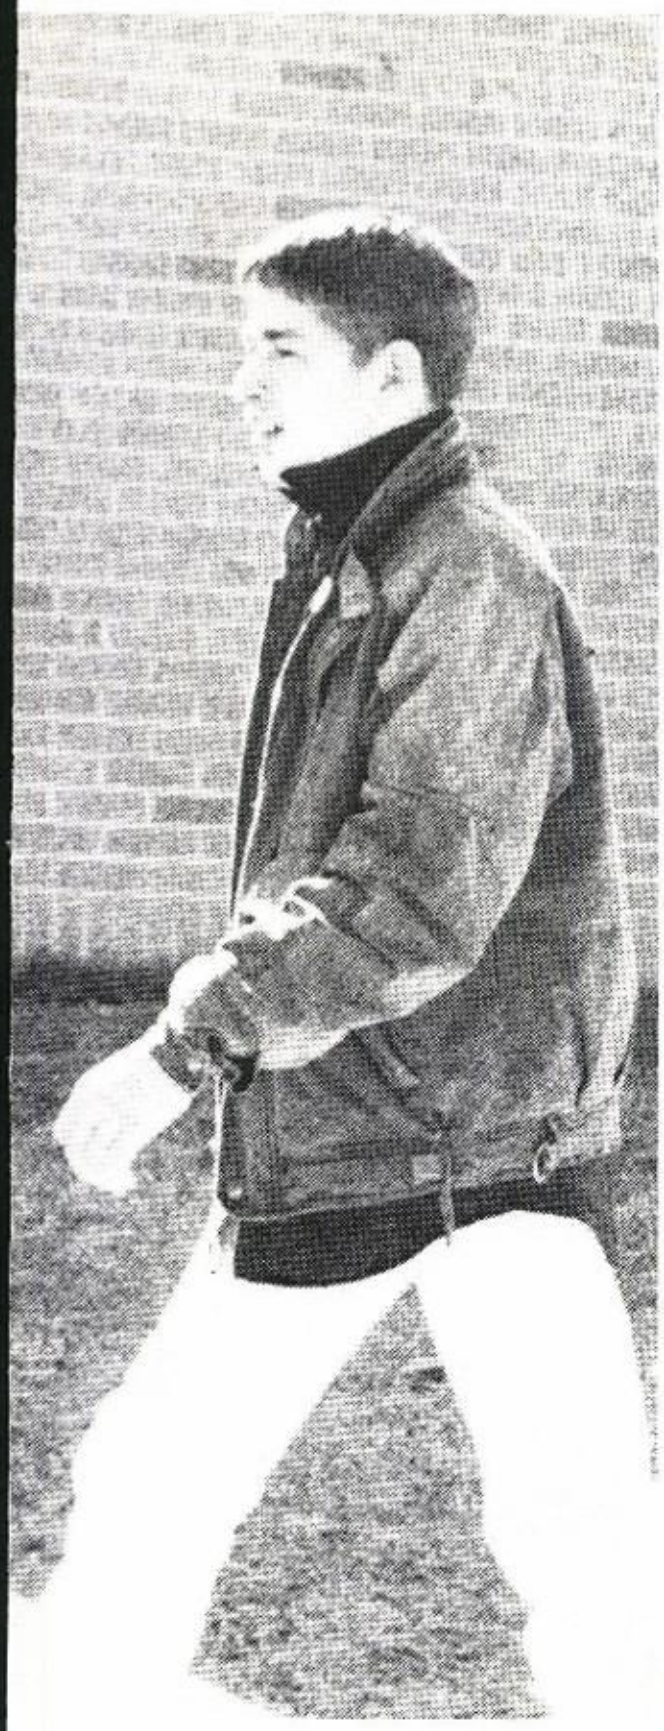
Fire Prevention Week was educational for these students, Tiffany Hand and Scott Rackley. Mr. Bobby Richey and Mr. Bill Brooks demonstrated the proper techniques in using fire extinguishers.

Many students like William Shipp, Stephen Whatley, and David Green preferred to brown bag it rather than stand in line at the cafeteria during lunch.

Junior Tami Clarkson, like many other students, finds time to laugh and enjoy the free time during morning break . .

You get a good view of what's happening in the hall if you sit on the steps in front of the gym. These girls are anxiously awaiting the bell for fifth period to begin!





Students

BREAK

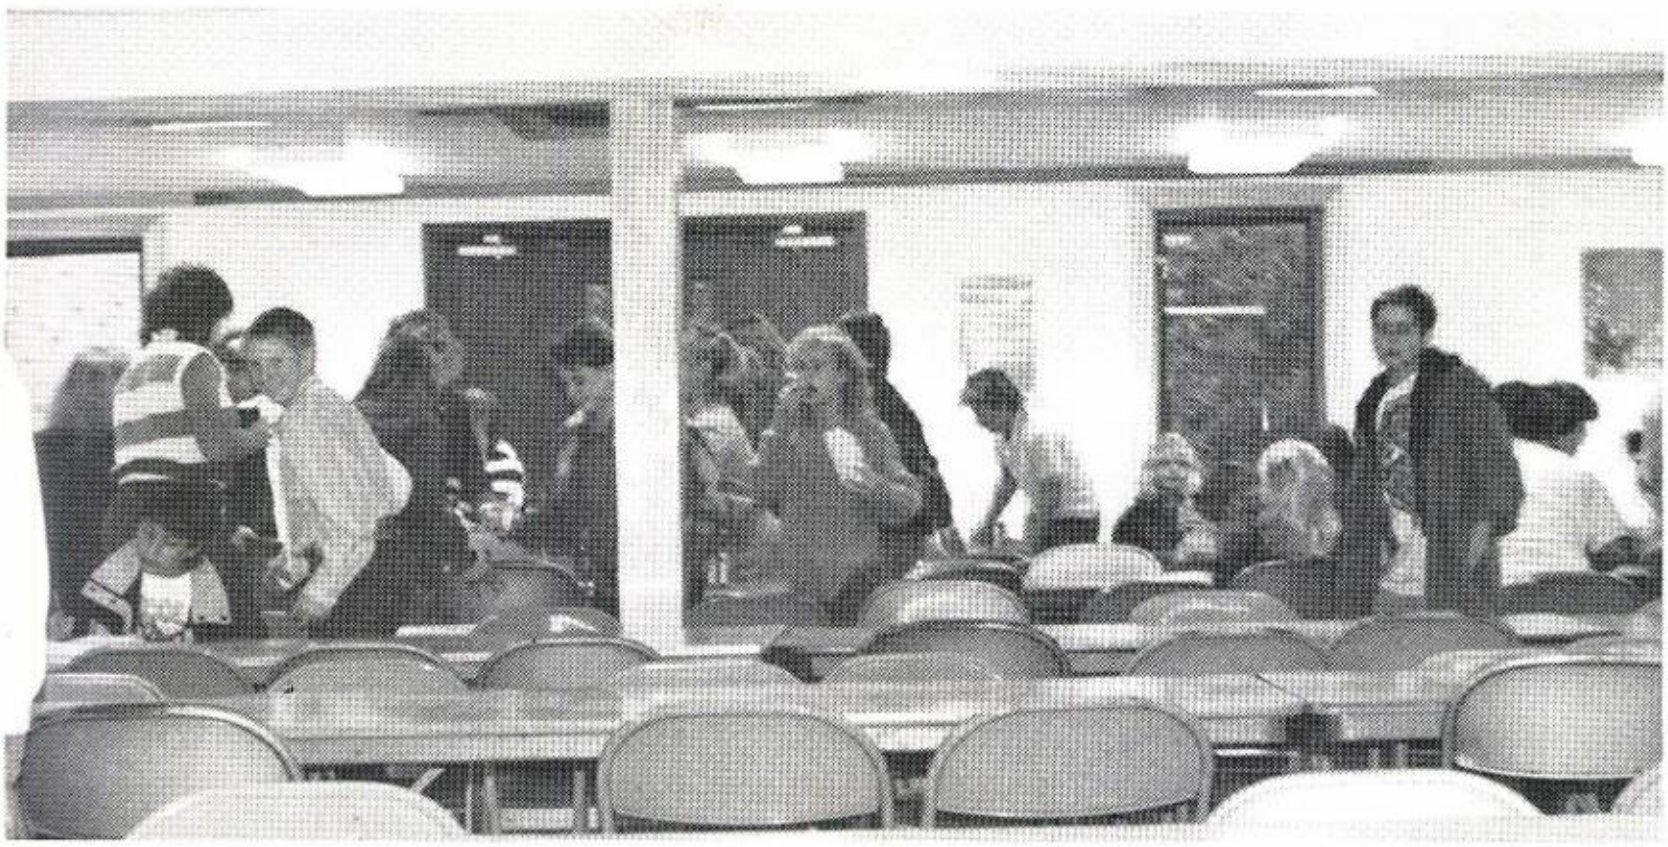
If you ask a student what is their favorite part of the day, they will reply "break". All over the grounds, students find different ways of enjoying their free time. A lot of changes have been made in the curriculum but this is one part of the day that students hope never has to be changed.

Shelley Cearley wrestles Ruben Broussard during break. I wonder who won!

Valentin Rios seems a little annoyed that he has to go in, but break doesn't last all day.

Willie Wilson takes a stroll around campus to get a little exercise after sitting all morning.

During bad weather, students take their break in the cafeteria and enjoy cokes and chips.



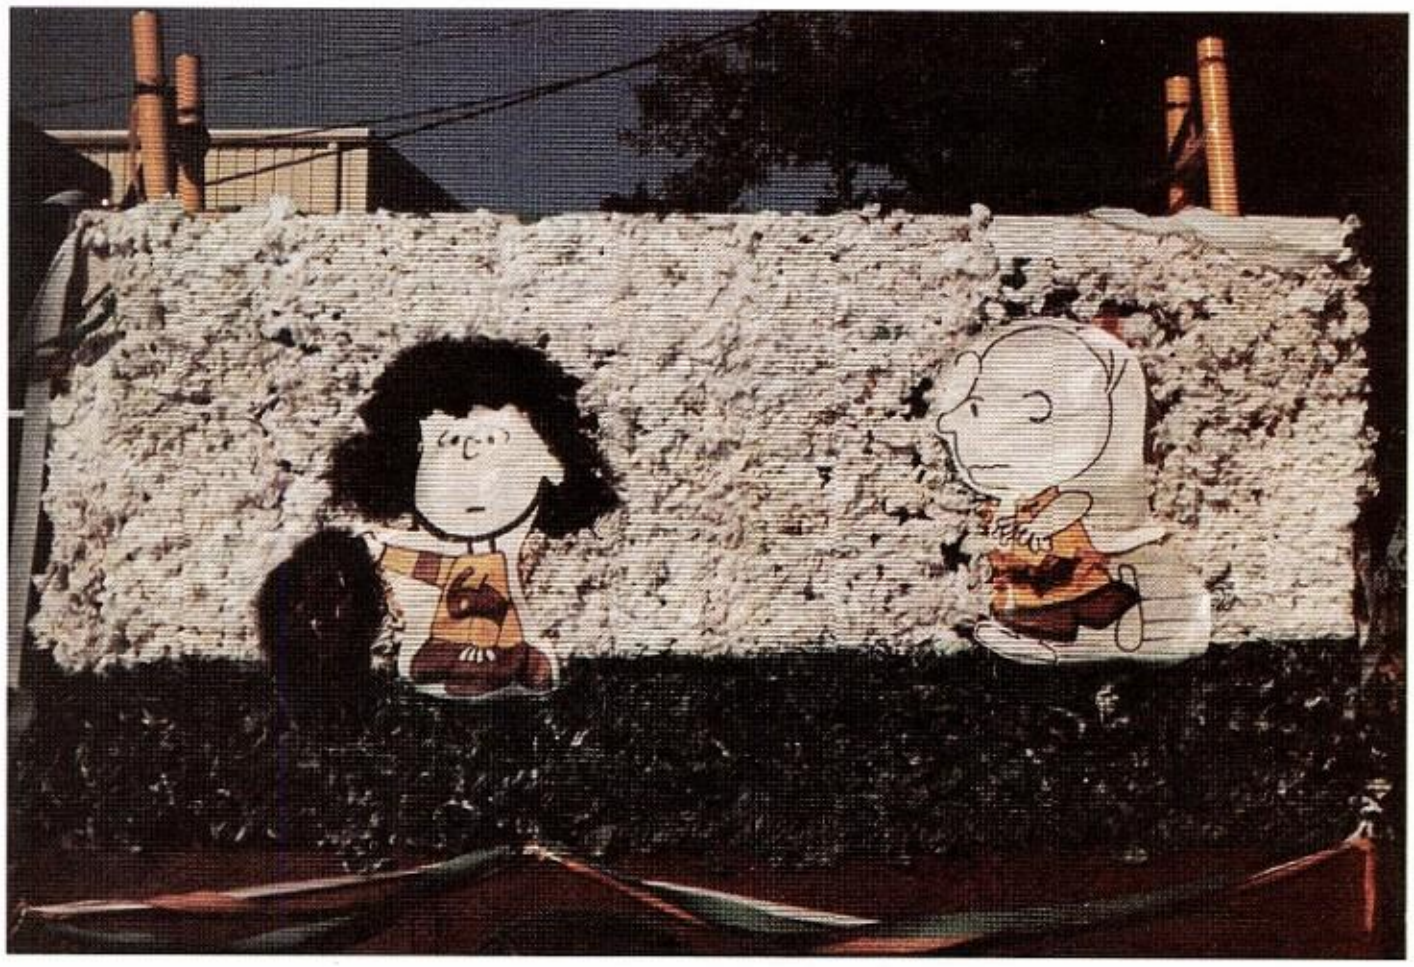
BLACK CAT BRINGS GOOD LUCK

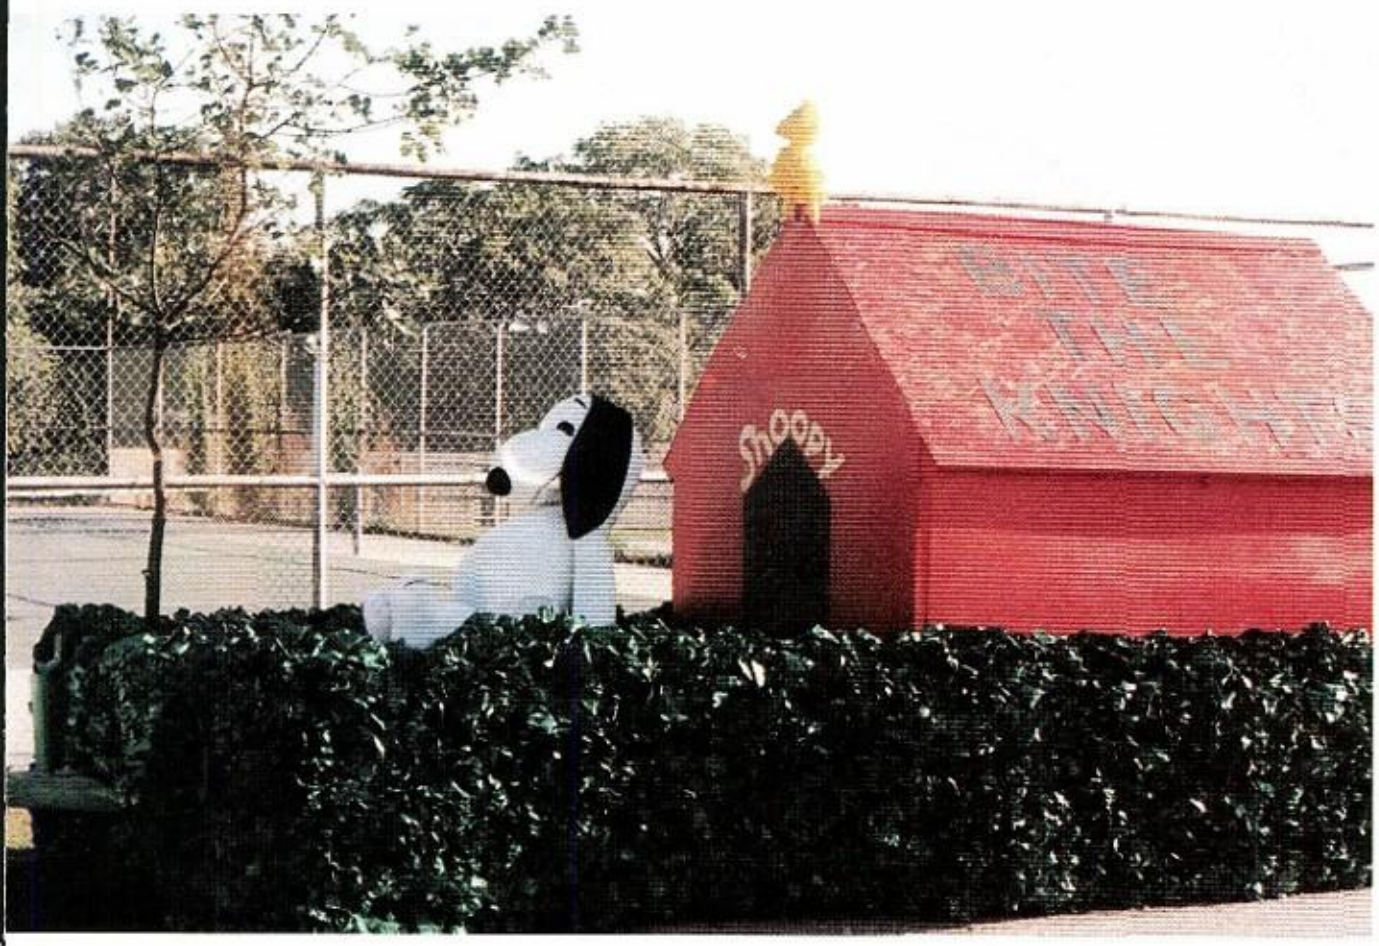
Homecoming came on September 19 which did not give the classes a lot of time to prepare for building the traditional floats. Each class met the second week of school and decided where to build, materials they would need, and times they would meet to build their floats. The Ex-Students Association decides the theme each year and this year it was cartoon characters. Seniors have first choice and each class follows as to classification. The freshmen chose last but they came in first. Contrary to superstitions, a big black cat brought the 9th graders very good luck. Felix the Cat won first place.

The freshmen started their first year in high school with a first-prize float and were very proud of their work. The judges liked the big black cat as well as the parade spectators.

Fat Albert was the sophomore's choice of cartoon characters and Brent Miller portrayed him on the float. "Hey — Hey — Hey" the sophomores walked away with second place.

Bugs Bunny rode atop the junior class float. Burette Douglas put lots of hard work into this silly rabbit and the juniors were very proud of it. Bugs came in fourth.





The art classes participated in building a float for the first time this year. Mr. Olsen's classes prepared a very competitive entry. Everyone will have to look out for them in the future.

Snoopy was the senior's entry and their float won 3rd place.

Dragon Mascot

HOMECOMING NEWCOMER

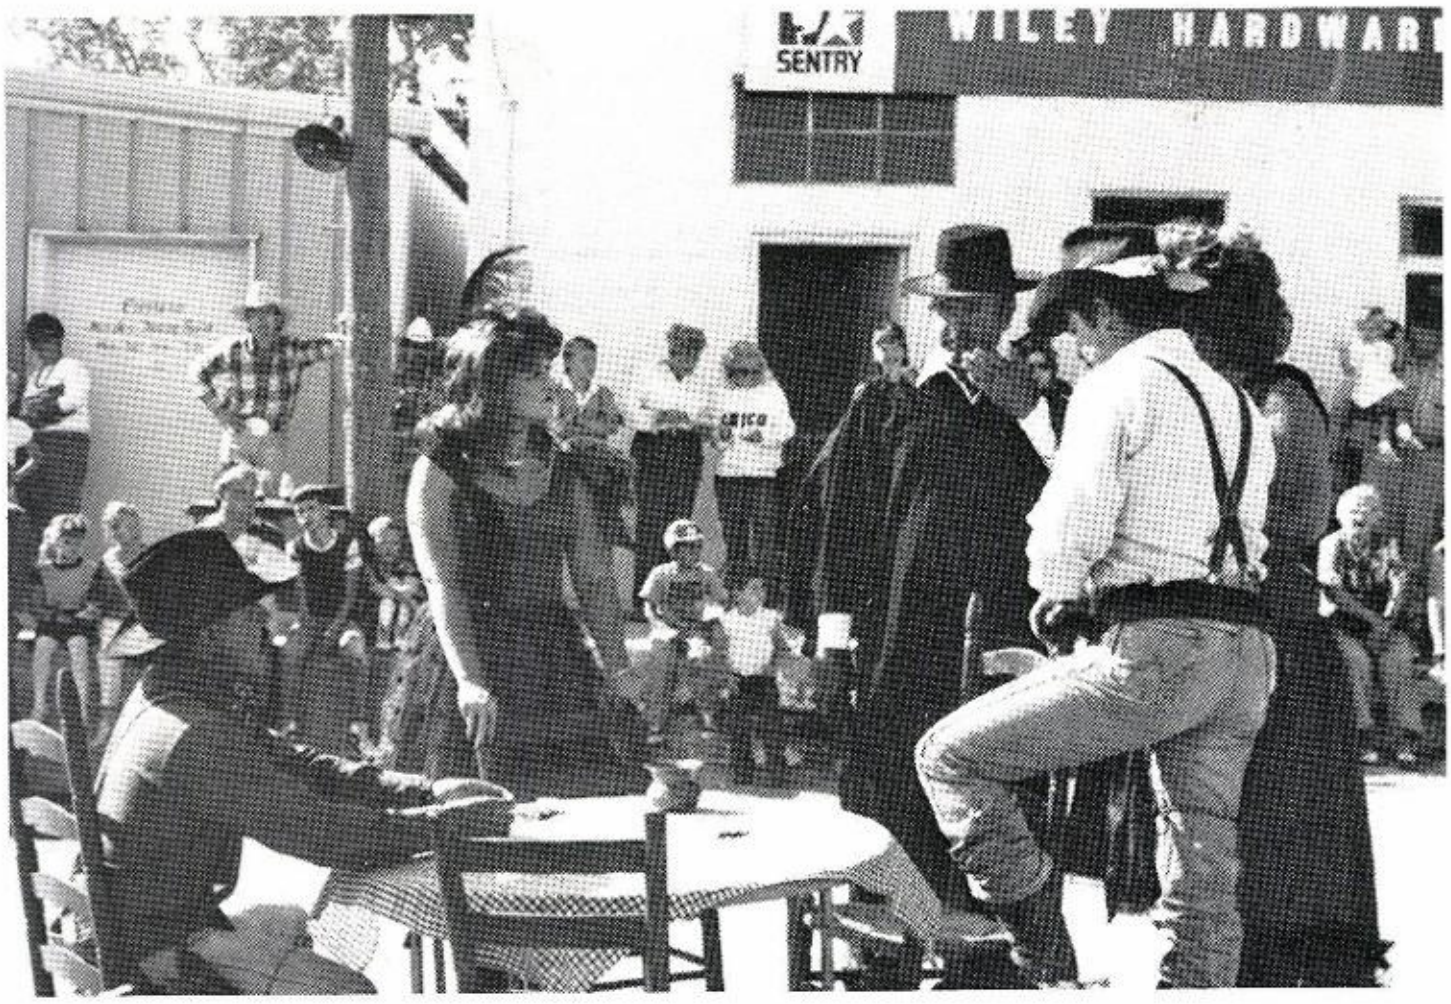
Chico I.S.D. has a mascot and the cheerleaders worked very hard to collect enough money to buy the mascot uniform. The money was donated by the community merchants and the mascot has become a real spirit booster. The mascot even helped raise money by posing with kids who wanted to have their picture made with a Dragon!

Not only is this new addition a spirit booster, but Chico students can proudly present their mascot at all sports activities and let people know we are the Dragons. The person elected to wear the mascot uniform has a lot to do with the spirit it raises and this year Miss Tammy Buckner was awarded this honor by the entire student body.

Even a Dragon can wear a mum at homecoming!

If you don't think it's hard to sit in the crowded band section, play an instrument and at the same time keep your mum on straight, just ask Leah Hughes.

Sunglasses, convertible, arm-bands! Are these guys coaches or members of the Mafia?



A nice ending was added to the parade this year by a group of actors from Bridgeport. They are called the "Hole In The Wall Gang."

A MAGIC MOMENT

TERESA MOSS CROWNED

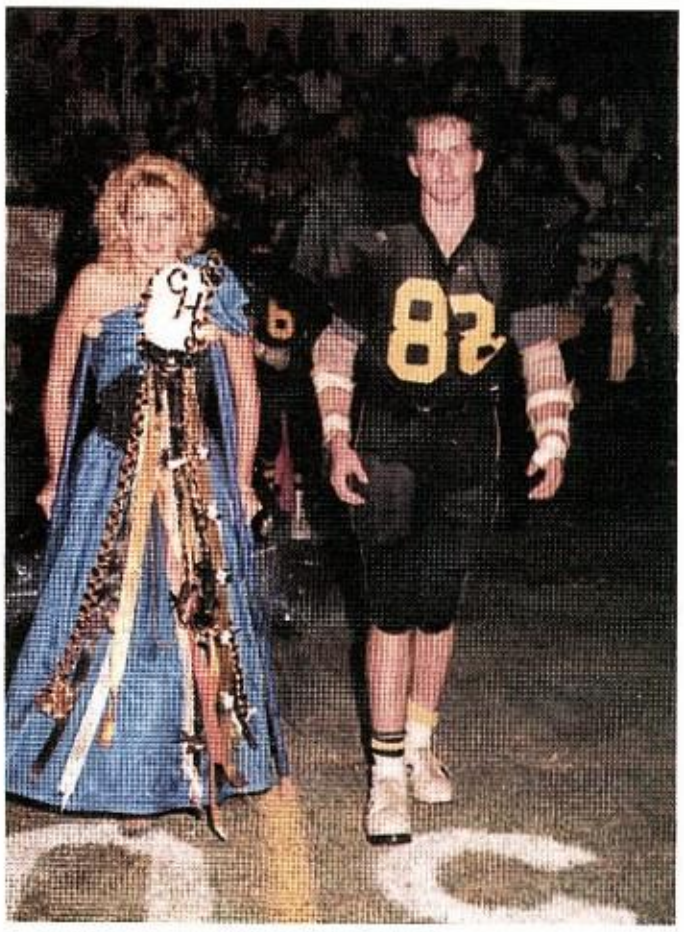
They all stood silently on the field. Each candidate was awaiting the announcement of the 1987 homecoming queen. Under the long dresses, you could not see their knees shaking — but they were. The short time you have to wait until the name of the queen is announced seems like a lifetime. Finally the winner is announced but there are no tears of sadness because it is quite an honor to be nominated by your class and to represent them on the field in front of usually the largest crowd at any home game. It really is a magic moment for the queen and the candidates.

The queen is decided by popular vote. Each class chooses one candidate and the four are then voted on by the entire high school student body.

This year Miss Teresa Moss, Junior, was crowned homecoming queen. Teresa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Moss and is a very active student. She participates in all sports, is a cheerleader and an honor student.

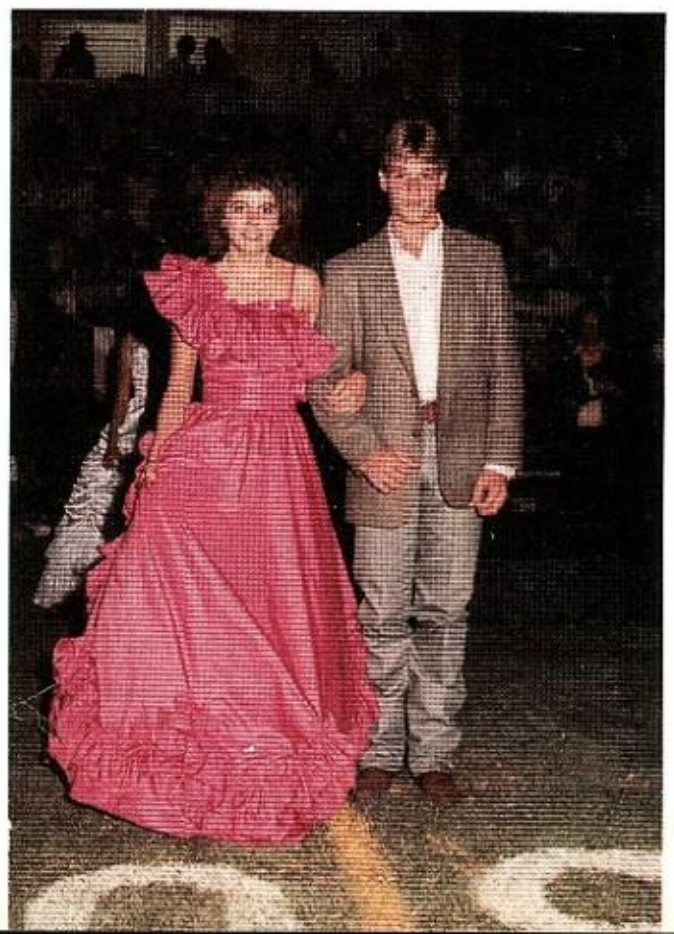
The class of 1946 was honored this year and Mrs. Mary Jane Ramos was coming home queen and Mr. Bill Manning was king.

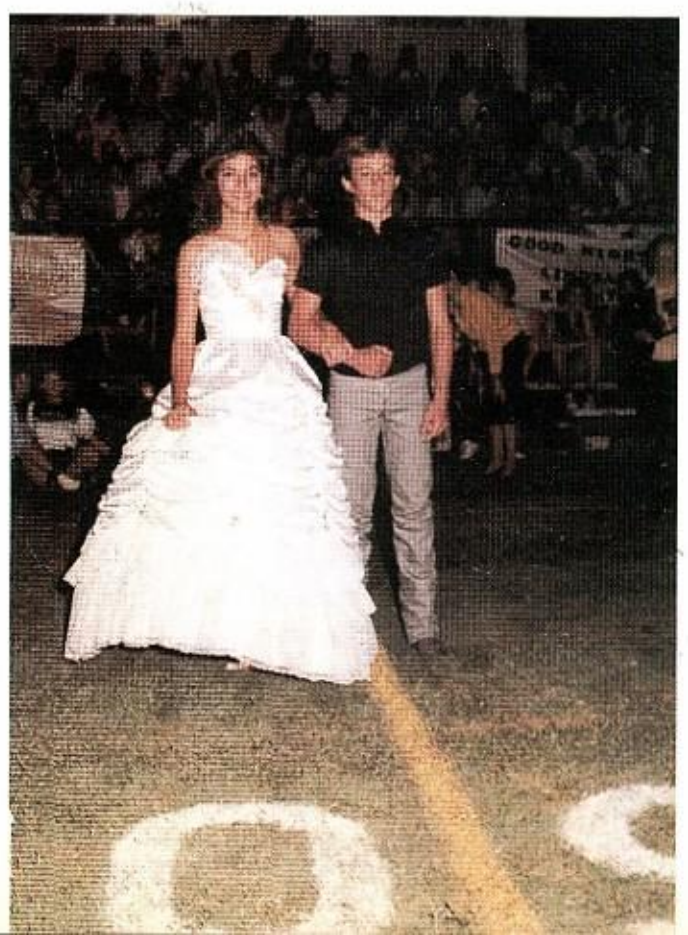
Senior nominee and accident victim was Miss Judy Anderson escorted by Mr. Rick Morales. Judy had to hobble on the field because of a broken ankle.



Miss Lisa Buckner, sophomore nominee, was escorted by Mr. Todd Low.

Escorted by Mr. Trent Teague is freshman candidate, Miss Leah Hughes.





Teresa Moss beams after being crowned homecoming queen. Jeff Barber took time off from halftime briefing to escort Teresa onto the field.

Homecoming Queen

Miss Jennifer O'Dell was flower girl for the halftime crowning ceremonies and Mr. Justin Mowery was crown bearer.

Class Of 1989

This class will be hard to follow when they graduate in 1989. Talented, hard-working, studious and loyal are just a few adjectives which describe this junior class.

You can find most of these students participating in all of the various activities offered to Chico High School students. They are leading the way and doing a great job!

When the weather is pretty, you can always find this group of juniors on the front steps of the high school.

The one with the pretty legs is Robbie Ryan. Robbie won first runner up at the Fun Dango beauty contest.

Saying Goodbye

One of the hardest things a senior has to do is say goodbye at the last pep rally. It finally sinks in that they will not be participating as students in any future pep rallies, and tears begin to fall.

Melany Burgess, Senior Class President, read a poem to the student body at the last pep rally and the remaining seniors gathered around her. It was their way of saying goodbye and letting everyone know they are going to try and make Chico High School very proud of them.

Dragons Improve Under New Leadership

The Dragons started off the 1987 football season with a new head coach, Glenn Wilson. Coach Wilson brought many changes to the Chico team. Coach Wilson felt that the team needed to be introduced to a new offense and defense.

"Sometimes your players constitute what type of offense and defense you will use," Coach Wilson said. "Establishing a new offense and defense is always a tough decision to make because the transition is always toughest on the athletes themselves. The players are making the adjustments but we still have a long way to go. I am proud of every individual that gave everything they had and then some."

Chico High School is in a transitional stage and the athletic program is no exception. With the fundamental groundwork set, the Chico Dragons can look forward to an exciting 88-89 athletic season.

Randy Legate, senior, slips away from a Windthorst Trojan during the second scrimmage of the season.

Ricky Taylor, No. 80, aids No. 33, Ricky Connally, with a strong block.

Turning the corner, freshman, Chris Lemley stiff-arms a Hornet.

Senior, Jim Hand, makes the call at the Lindsay game.

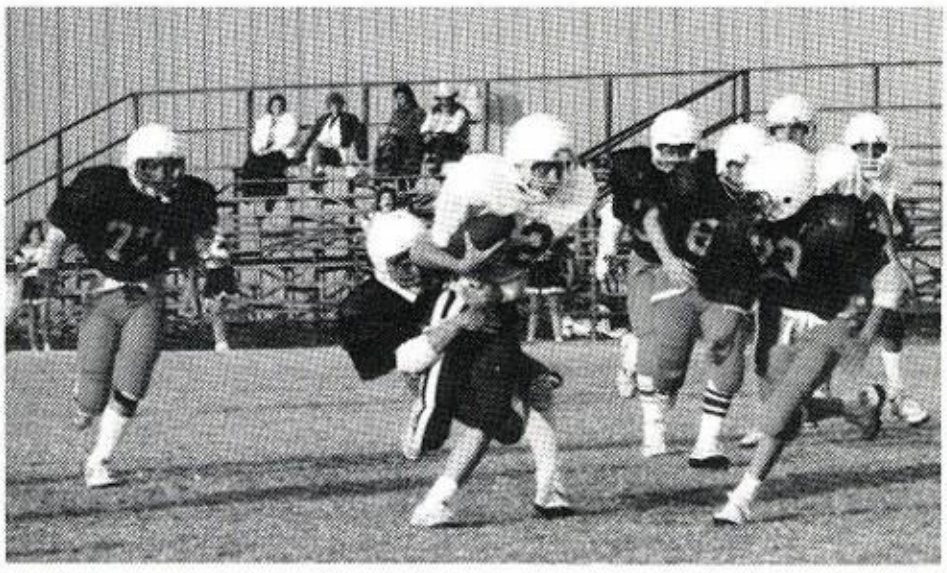
Hard Work = Success

The junior high Dragons had a successful year if you don't measure success by the number of games won. If you watched the team improve with each game and saw how hard they worked, you knew they were successful.

"The major objective for the '87 season was to teach the team basic skills and to see how they would respond to different types of defense," Coach Ron Langthorn said.

Success cannot always be measured by one factor and this Dragon team showed a lot of enthusiasm and a very important factor, the desire to learn.



Jeff Hughes, No. 77, and Joe Davis, No. 23, watch as fellow dragon takes down a Millsap Bulldog.

Digging For A Winning Season

The 1987 volleyball season was plagued by up and down performances. Despite this, the team produced a winning record and five all-district selections. This can be attributed to the team's positive attitude and the confidence they had in each other.

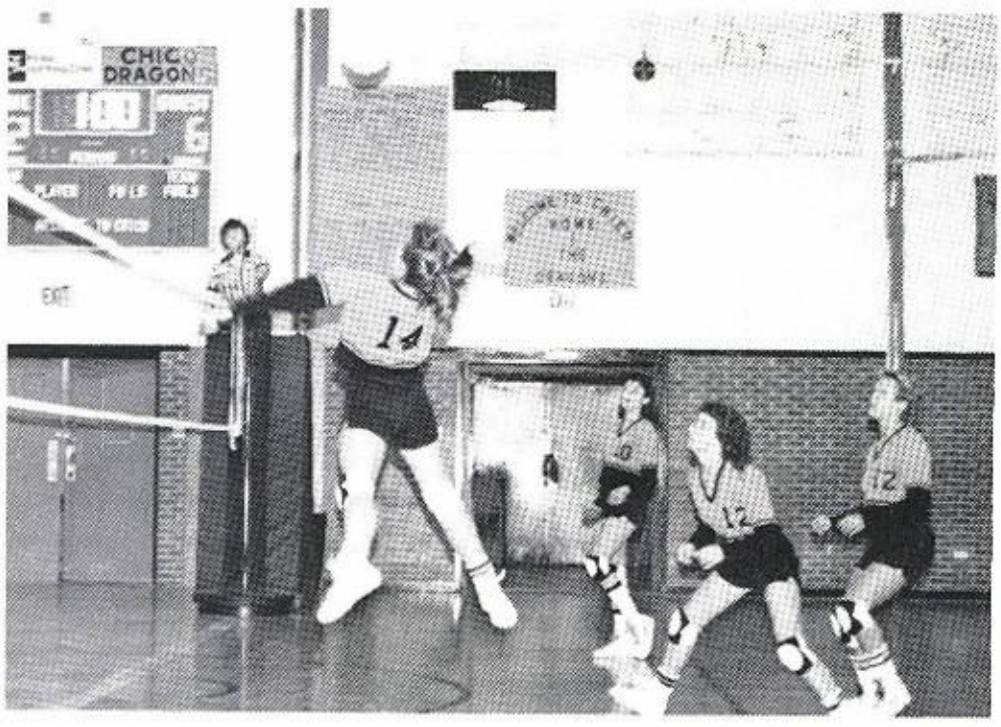
"With the graduation of five seniors this year, we will have similar problems to overcome next year. We will return five athletes that received quite a lot of playing time. Therefore we will have varsity playing experience. We will also return two of our top four starters. Next year looks very promising" Coach Ferguson said.

Stacey Davis, senior, goes down to return a spike as teammate, Tammy Buckner, gets ready to assist.

Varsity Volleyball

Senior, Tammy Buckner, stretches high at a successful attempt to spike the ball.

Missy Ward backs up sophomore, Lisa Buckner, on a serve return.



Teresa Moss, Lisa Buckner and Amy Hallenbeck watch anxiously as Sabrina Easley returns with a spike.

Junior, Amy Hallenbeck, reaches higher than the net on this ball-placement attempt.

Making The Dragons Proud

The first dragon mascot in the history of Chico High School is Tammy Buckner.

Mrs. Susie Powers, cheerleader sponsor, wore the dragon uniform for newspaper pictures before the student mascot was elected.

Mr. Dragon makes a big hit with Shanelle VanHoose.

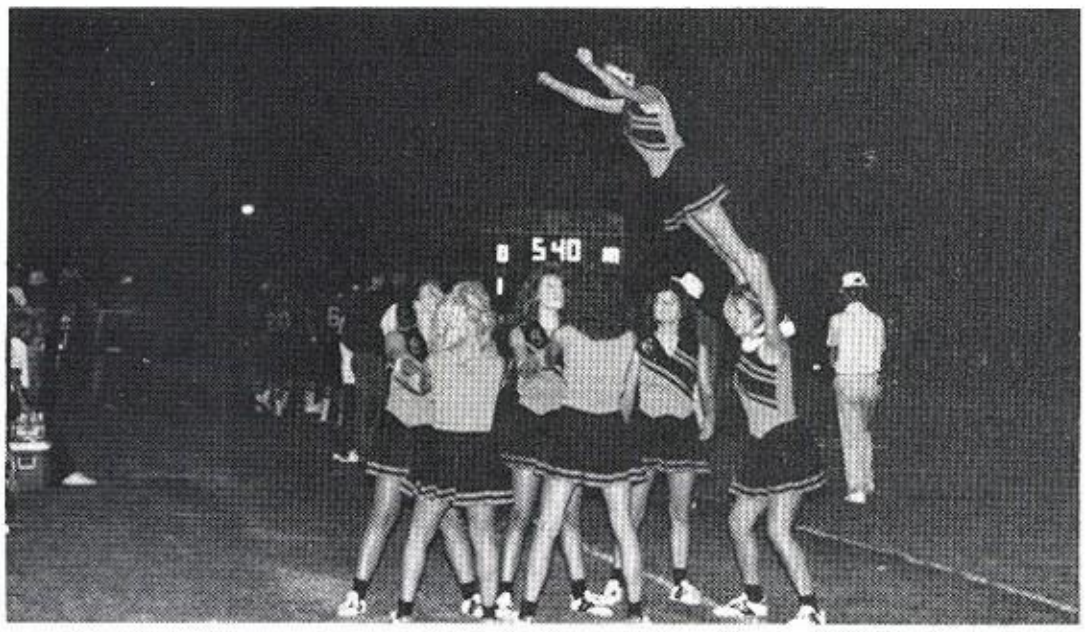
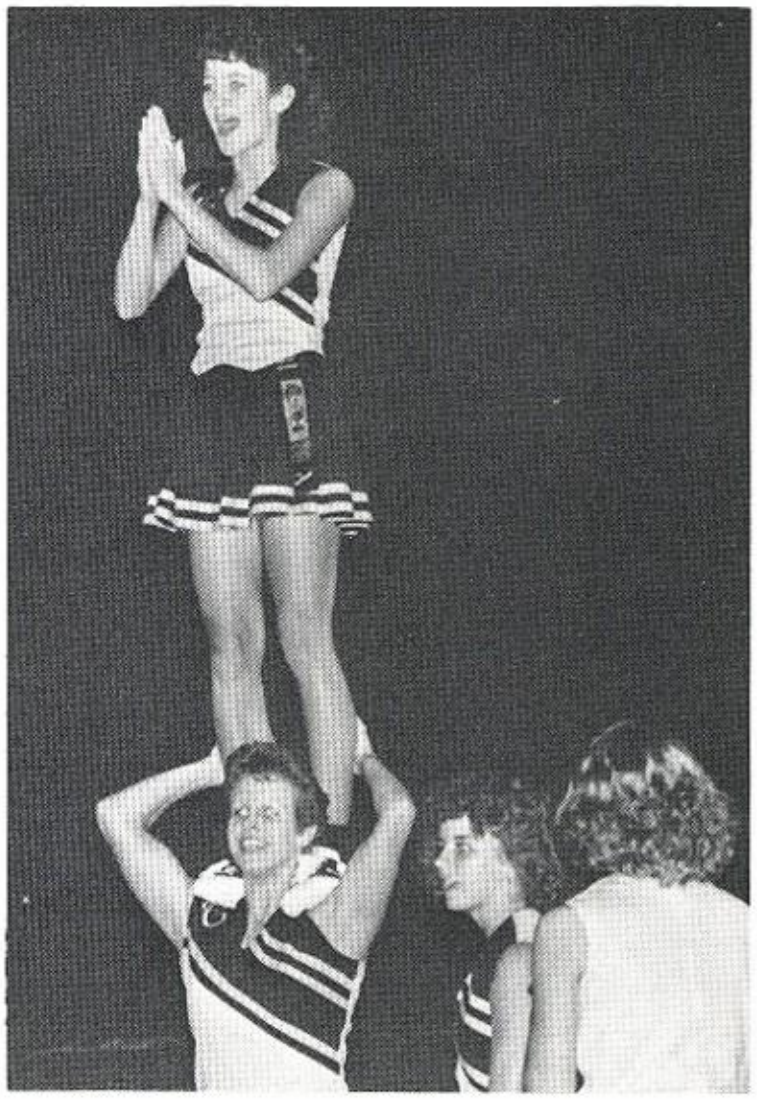
Raise your hands, you've got it. Raise your hands, you know it. Raise your hands, if you're sure!

Football players and cheerleaders join together in the pep rally against district rival, Alvord.



Ready or not, here I come!



Thanks to Amy, Teresa is able to get the crowd's attention.

Everyone loves "Mr. Dragon."

During halftime, the cheerleaders were able to show the spectators their excellent routines.

Drill team members, students, and cheerleaders joined hands to sing the school song before the opening kickoff.

Staying together during chants is not always easy. Teresa and Angie keep an eye on each other to make sure they do.

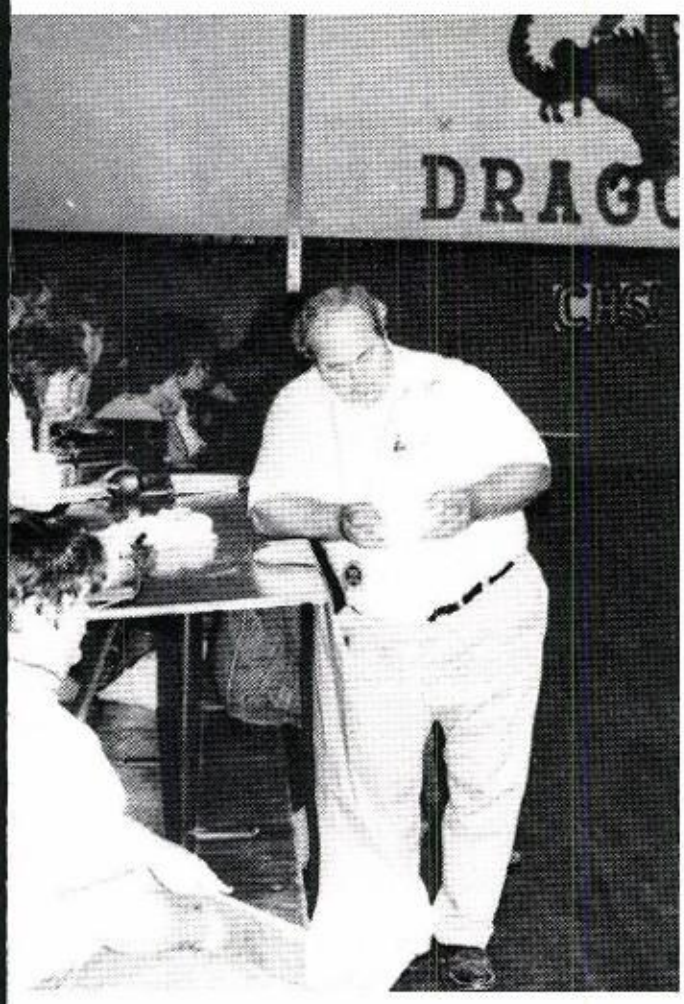
Dragon Band

An experience you will never forget is riding the band bus to an away football game!

The band plays carols during the annual Christmas parade.

The Beat Goes On!

Mr. McVey conducts the high school band during their performances at the Christmas concert in the auditorium.



Mr. McVey works very hard along with his band members to participate in all school activities. He takes a few minutes between songs at the pep rally to review the pep rally schedule.

Interested choir members had to practice at 7:30 a.m. weekdays in order to participate in this extracurricular activity. They performed at the Christmas concert and made a special addition to the program. The member are L to R: Tammy Beckworth, Angie McGuire, Delene Green, Leah Hughes, Corey Mader, Lori Morrow, Lavona Burgess, Michelle Blaylock, Nita Rios.

EXPECTATIONS

... we all have them, and sometimes things happen to change them.

But there are some expectations that never change — like the fun and comfort of a best friend, the satisfaction of a good test grade, or the chills a school song brings when sung across a lighted field.

At TU Electric, we realize you have expectations of us, too — like having the electrical power ready when you turn on your computer, put on some records or plug in the blow dryer. And when the power does go off, we know you expect it to be restored quickly.

And it will be. That's just part of our commitment to provide quality electric service to customers.
